

Training Seminar on Monday 17 May, Dunedin

People in Place

Environmental Sustainability in Social Service

Professional development for community, youth & social workers, counsellors and agency leadership.

Trainer: Silvia Purdie

*Environmental challenges are increasingly impacting our clients and our agencies.
'People in Place' is a positive, holistic approach that stimulates creative responses.
This seminar will enable you to develop your own 'green' practice and to start formulating a
'sustainability map' for your agency.*

Topics covered:

- Sustainability for community services
- Reducing carbon and waste
- Client wellbeing and climate anxiety
- Climate change risks and inequalities
- Kaitiakitanga: Bicultural perspectives
- Guest speaker: Wayne TeKaawa
- Personal resilience

Monday 17 May 2021 9.00am – 4.00pm

Cost: $210 (no GST payable)

Leith Valley Presbyterian Church, Malvern St, Glenleith, Dunedin

*Includes morning & afternoon tea & a delicious lunch and time to be refreshed in the green & serene Leith Valley!
Certificate issued for professional development (7 hours).*

Register at: www.place.net.nz/training or email: silvia.purdie@gmail.com

Silvia Purdie is a sustainability consultant, trainer, counsellor and ordained minister. She is passionate about resourcing the social sector for environmental responsibility.

Place Consultancy

Phone: 027 242 1113

