

REPORT TO NZAP COUNCIL, November 2023

From the Ata Editors

Report: To NZAP COUNCIL

Re: Ata: Journal of Psychotherapy Aotearoa New Zealand

Date: 30 October 2023

From: Co-editor John O'Connor (on behalf of fellow co-editor Wiremu Woodard)

Introduction

Kia Ora Koutou

The work of the Journal has been somewhat delayed in recent months. Nevertheless, we are making gradual progress on the next issue, now due for publication in December 2023, (Volume 27, Number 1, August 2023).

Upcoming issue of the Journal

We have received four submissions for this issue and are expecting a couple more shortly.

As always, we thank Hineira Woodard for her generous and expert work providing te reo Māori interpretations of the abstracts; tēnā koe, Hineira. Our considerable thanks to our creative, skillful, and eagle-eyed designer, Katy Yiakmis; tēnā koe, Katy. Thank you to Nikky Winchester for her dedicated and skillful work as sub-editor: tēnā koe Nikky. And we are delighted to have the ever capable and always generous Luisa Maloni on the team as assistant to the editors: tēnā koe Luisa.

Back issues of Forum currently in the process of being put online on the Tuwhera website

Confirming that, thanks to the good work of Luisa Maloni, we have made further progress in placing all back-issues of the predecessor of Ata, the Forum Journal, online on the Tuwhera website. All 15 back issues of Forum are now available online. In addition, all published issues of Ata are already available online on this website.

Conclusion

We, the co-editors of the journal, Wiremu Woodard and John O'Connor, are enjoying working together, in collaboration with writers with diverse perspectives in relation to psychotherapy particularly within the Aotearoa New Zealand context. We are looking forward to continuing to develop the Journal, and in particular to the publication of the next issues, which we anticipate will provide stimulating and engaging reading.

Tēnā koutou, tēnā koutou, tēnā koutou katoa.

John O'Connor
