

Positionality – Relating to Te Ao Māori

This workshop is for anyone with a desire to explore who they are in relation to Te Ao Māori.

Workshop Brief

This workshop is for anyone with a desire to explore who they are in relation to Te Ao Māori, including their professional and personal identities. You will be supported to interact, reflect, and grow through a Te Ao Māori lens during this experiential workshop.

In our professional environments there is an increasing need to be more culturally aware and safely engage with Te Ao Māori. This workshop will help you to:

- Identify where you are positioned in relation to Te Ao Māori.
- Explore where you would like to be now, are required to be, or want to be positioned in the future.
- Identify strengths and potential barriers on your pathway to connecting with Te Ao Māori.

Details

- Date - Monday 20th May 2024
- Time - 8:30am – 5:00pm
- Venue - The Rydges Hotel, 30 Latimer Square, Christchurch 8011
- Catered Event: Yes
- Availability: 50 Persons
- Cost: $500.00 inc GST
- Payment: Payment taken via Stripe. Registration confirmed on payment. Please follow the link below to register

https://kihirua.co.nz/workshop_training/positionality-relating-to-te-ao-maori/

Your Speakers

Join Jason Northover, and Dr Roxy Heffernan as they meet you where you are, to conceptualise and explore positionality in relation to Te Ao Māori.

Together we will address both personal and professional growth towards cultural safety, cultural competence, and cultural proficiency.

Jason Northover
Cultural Advisor

Dr Roxy Heffernan
Psychological Consultant, Author and Coach